Year 6 - Evacuee Play Performance

"Imagine that it is World War II and you were an evacuee taken from your parents and sent into the unknown? What would you be feeling? Let me tell you all about it . . .

On Wednesday the 19th of June, Year 6 did a play on evacuees. We had costumes and props to make it look like we were real evacuees - gruesome gasmasks, scratchy shorts, itchy dresses, ragged cases, cute and scruffy teddy bears also a water canister.

In the first week we didn't start acting but we learnt all about the nineteen-forties. We learnt about many wartime objects such as, carbolic soap, Spam, and cod-liver oil. YUCK!
The one good thing was TOFFEE.

As the second week came we played all the games that young children in that time would play, like 'Grandmas Footsteps', Snap, jacks and skipping etc.
It was really hard - nowadays we have lots of technology to entertain us.

Finally, after 5 weeks the day had come for us to showcase all that we had learnt from that time in the 1940s - the difficulties and adventures those children of our age had. We sang two songs. The first song was called 'Boys and Girls Come Out to Play' - we had to do actions to the words. The second song was an emotional tearjerker, ' Dear Mum and Dad'. At this point when we looked at the audience, many had tears in their eyes."

Nursery and Reception - 'Chamber Tots' Performance

On Thursday 20th June, our parents had a wonderful time watching and listening to their children performing on stage at the famous Wigmore Hall in central London.

The children's singing was accompanied by talented musicians playing on orchestral instruments such as violin and clarinet.

This is what some of the children thought about the day:

"This was the bestest trip ever!" - Zubayr

"I enjoyed it about the concert!" - Yaasir

"When I was in the music concert, I was happy!" - Anisa
