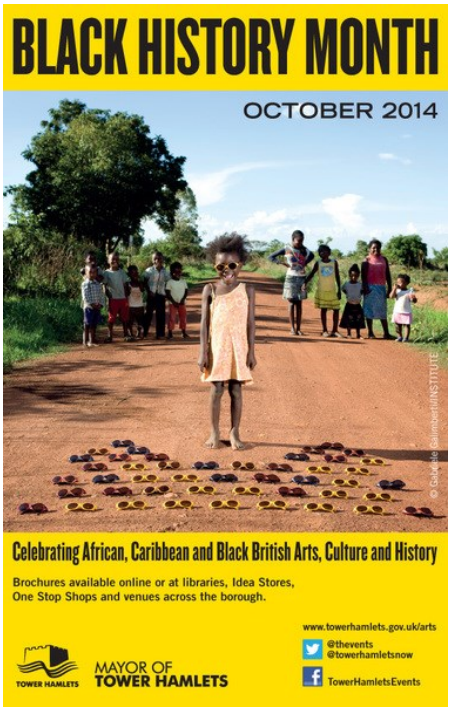
Mowlem Newsletter 24th September 2014

Black History Month 2014.

Everyone at Mowlem is looking forward to a visit from the famous children's author Eileen Browne on Wednesday 1st October.

She will be in our school for the whole day and the children will be taking part in a variety of exciting sessions including classroom visits, drawing sessions and a fruit event!

Anyone who has already pre-ordered books to be signed by the author can collect them at 3:30pm, other signed books will also be available to buy so please come along.



On Saturday 25th October, a variety of workshops to celebrate Black History Month will take place at the Idea Store in Watney Market.

For more local events see the Tower Hamlets arts website :
